

Musical Diagram

Volley - ball.

Green: is the volley ball.

Pink: is the iPod nano with can play any music you want.

Purple: is the wireless adapter with you can play when you play with your volley ball. when you serve the ball the music starts playing it stops 5 minutes after the volley ball hasn't been hit.

blue: are the strings that hold the iPod in place so it doesn't break.

So you can play with your volley-ball as you jam to your favourite music. Its fun and its exercise its so fun you might not want to stop playing with it.

How I thought of this item

I thought of this item when I was watching cloudy with a chance of meat balls. Flat loek wood was a talented scientist and when I was done watching it I worked and worked and I thought of the Musical Volley ball. Its fun and its cool all I did was mix my two favourite things together music and my favourite sport volley ball and I got the Musical volley ball I think it was an easy creation and lots of people think it would be cool.
